ROGER S. REDMAN

Named Personnel Manager For New Appomattox Plant

Roger S. Redman, Central Personnel, Thomasville Furniture Industries, Thomasville, North Carolina, has been named Personnel Manager for the new Thomasville plant to be built in Appomattox.

The contract for grading has been awarded and work is well underway at the site of the new plant on Route 460. The contract for construction of the 450,000 square foot building will be awarded by the end of May with the actual construction set to begin June 1st. Completion date for the new plant has been set for June of 1974.

Redman, born July 6, 1935, is a native of Surry County, North Carolina. A graduate of Guilford College, he is married to the former Frances Evans and they are the parents of three children: Ann, Sheryl and Laura. They are members of the Presbyterian Church and he is active in civic affairs. He says they look forward to moving to Appomattox about the first of the year.

According the Redman, Thomasville Furniture Industries would like to hear from persons interested in employment and suggests that anyone interested contact him or Mr. Jim Smith president of the Appomattox County Development Corporation, Appomattox, Virginia.

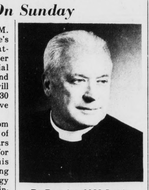
Will Administer Conformation At St. Anne's On Sunday

The Rt. Rev. Arnold M. Lewis will visit St. Anne's Episcopal Church, Appomattox, on May 13 to administer Conformation. This special joint service of St. Anne's and Emmanuel, Buckingham, will be held in Appomattox at 10:30 for the confirmation of twelve people.

Bishop Lewis retired from the active ministry at the end of 1970 after serving for six years as the first Episcopal Bishop for the Armed Forces. In his capacity as official endorsing agent for all Episcopal clergy entering the military chaplaincy, he worked closely with each branch of the military, traveling extensively to domestic and overseas military installations. his responsibility also included chaplains in the service of the Veterans Administration.



Rt. Rev. Arnold M. Lewis

A graduate of Springfield College, Springfield, Mass., and the Virginia Theological Seminary, Alexandria, Bishop Lewis began his ministry as rector of St. Mark's Episcopal Church, Westhampton Beach, N.Y., in 1936. This was followed by five years on active duty as an Army chaplain during World War II. For two of these years he was the regimental chaplain for the 176th (First Virginia) Infantry Regiment. After his active military service, Bishop Lewis was, for five years, Director of layman's work for the Episcopal Church. In 1951 he was named dean of St. John's Cathedral, Jacksonville, Fla.

Bishop Lewis was consecrated Bishop of Western Kansas in
